About Us

Indian food is famous all over the world because of the aromatic and delicious spices added to it. The items like Sortex Cumin Seeds, Natural Sesame Seeds, Natural Fennel Seeds, Eagle Coriander Seeds, etc. are some major products that are used to enhance the taste of a dish. Under the leadership of Mr. Dev Parikh, our company named Sea And Sage is meeting the needs of customers associated with the mentioned products.

We are supported by a dexterous team of professionals possessing rich industry knowledge to bring forth organically produced items. We are a trusted manufacturer and exporter of the aforesaid items, the demand of which is increasing day by day at a tremendous rate. By delivering our products to other countries, we are generating revenue for our nation and promoting our Indian spices all over the world.

Our business is not confined to the boundaries of India but we are serving customers from other countries as well. We export products in worldwide markets and some of our major markets are in USA, UK and Europe. We export in bulk and always meet the requirements of our foreign customers within the stipulated time frame.

We own an advanced manufacturing unit that is unified with necessary facilities that simplify our business operations. Our production plant is the reason because of which we are capable to meet big orders on an immediate basis and serve customers with quality products. We keep on upgrading our machines so that they may not get outdated and function without any glitch, thereby, helping us to meet the orders timely.
